Feminine Empowerment

"This class is structured to reconnect and taking back one's feminine power. Through many thousands of years and lifetimes, the feminine energies have been shackled, bonded, scrutinized and sometimes treated less than cattle. The masculine, the weaker of the two, has always treated the feminine as a third class, less important, vibration out of fear of losing control.

During the time of the catholic resurrection, "keeping thy women silent in church," decided to create a defined meaning that women have only one purpose...procreation, and in some cultures, pleasure was taken away (and still today).

During relationships of woman and man, because of life experiences and fear of the unknown, the divine feminine light has been snuffed out, therefore the power given to the masculine. We are now in the feminine age, which is given an opportunity for divine purpose through the reconnection of the feminine power.

This class will give you guidelines and knowledge on how to gain back one's feminine power. Ceremony, affirmation and meditation to say a few of the tools that will be given and taught; therefore, creating an infinite energy of a divine spark.

Through the creation of God, there was not a known gender, more of an androgynous vibration and reality. In order for life to understand the duality a separation must occur of the known universe; therefore, creating good and bad, light and dark, male and female, etc. Within the separation two genders emerged being called the sacred feminine and sacred masculine. Both are equal and both have power, however, the feminine was given the power of creation directly given by God. In truth, no matter how much power one has, no matter how equal things are, there is always one that was given more than the other, being the female in this case.

What makes this class important and highly needed is without the integration of the two, divine truth and resolution can never be achieved. The class is not to exclude the masculine, for the masculine and the feminine though not having anything to do with gender, are within both embodiments.

Everything is moving in time and on time. No one will cross the finish line first or last, it is up to you when the duality will end the new creation will begin.
